Kemtah Awarded IT Contract from large aerospace firm

Albuquerque, NM

February 7, 2008

The Kemtah Group, a leading provider of IT Transformation services, today announced that it has been awarded a contract by a large aerospace firm to provide IT infrastructure support for the its Data Center operations. Kemtah will be operating an IBM mainframe on-site to ensure critical business applications remain up and running on a 24x7 basis. The Kemtah team will be partnering with the client to accomplish the complicated relocation project for the hardware as well as leading the disaster recovery testing and scripting prior to taking the system live.

“We are very pleased to have been awarded this contract. We have a long history of working closely with them, and we are proud to continue that tradition. Our team is anxious to help relocate the mainframe and begin services at the new data center,” said Stephen V. Wade, Kemtah’s President.
