Kemtah Awarded IT Support Contract from large aerospace firm

Albuquerque, NM

May 1, 2007

The Kemtah Group, a leading provider of IT Transformation services, today announced that it has been awarded a contract by a large aerospace firm to provide IT infrastructure support including help desk and deskside services. Kemtah has been providing similar services to the client for the past 5 years with an excellent trackrecord of performance. Kemtah will continue to provide help desk and deskside services as well as network operations and management oversight of the IT support staff. The Kemtah staff will be improving performance metrics and reporting to provide high-quality support to the end users as well as improving efficiency by implementing ITIL based procedures.

“We are very pleased to have been awarded this contract. We look forward to working closely with our client as a partner to utilize IT services best practices in improving processes and increasing efficiencies while still maintaining a high level of end-user satisfaction,” said Stephen V. Wade, Kemtah’s President.
